Hymn

Salutis humanae sator,
Jesu, voluptas cordium,
Orbis redempti conditor
Et casta lux amantium,
Qua victus es dementia
Ut nostra ferres crimina,
Mortem sub ires innocens,
A morte nos ut tolleres?
Perrumpis infernum chaos,
O Vincis catenas detrahis,
Victor triumpho nobili
Ad dexteram Patris sedes.
Te cog at indulgentia
Ut damna nostra sarcias
Tuique vultus compotes,
Dites beato lumine.
Tu, dux ad astra et semita,
Sis meta nostris cordi bus,
Sis lacrimarum gaudium,
Sis dulce vitae praemium.,

Jesus, author of man's salvation and delight of his heart, founder of the world of the redeemed and pure light of God's lovers, what feeling of pity was it that compelled You to shoulder the burden of our sins and, though sinless, to undergo death to set us free from death? You forced Your way into hell's black realm, struck the chains off those in bondage, entered heaven, a conqueror in noble triumph, and now sit at the Father's right hand. May Your mercy prevail on You to repair the harm we have suffered and to reward us with the light of happiness, our desire to see You satisfied at last. You are our leader and the way to heaven; may You also be the goal on which our hearts are set, our joy in tribulation and life's sweet reward.
